Monica Orr (Simpson)

Monica Orr (Simpson), 83, of Portland, Oregon, passed away peacefully on June 10, 2018 after a courageous battle with blood cancer, heart disease, and pneumonia.

She was born on April 30, 1935, in Redrock, Montana, to Henry and Evelyn Simpson. Monica was the older sister of Tom and also had an older brother, John. Her early life in Montana instilled in her a love of family, community, and the beauty of the outdoors.

Monica married Tom Orr on January 21, 1956. The couple spent the first two years of their marriage in Dillon, Montana, before moving to Pocatello, Idaho, and finally settling in Portland, Oregon. Monica and Tom shared 62 wonderful years together, building a life filled with love, laughter, and devotion to family.

Monica dedicated her career to healthcare, working as a medical assistant and X-ray technician. She loved helping others and took great pride in her work. Beyond her career, Monica's passions were many. She enjoyed traveling extensively with Tom, visiting Canada, Mexico, Europe, India, Costa Rica, and spending ten winters in Yuma, Arizona. She loved shopping, dining out, gardening, cooking, dancing, fishing, crafts, and was an avid reader. Monica had a fun-loving spirit, a great sense of humor, and a heart full of kindness. She will be remembered for her loving nature and her joy in bringing happiness to others.

Monica is survived by her children, Roger (Janet), Marilyn, Bill, and Marlene (Dean); six grandchildren, Launa (Mike), Jennifer (Tim), Nolan, Abbie (Andrew), Lauren, and Eric; and three great-grandchildren, Kaitlyn, Gabrielle, and Ian. She was a devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, wife, sister, and friend whose warmth and laughter enriched the lives of everyone who knew her.

A burial of Monica's and Tom's ashes will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, September 13, at Mountain View Cemetery, 934 Sweetwater Road, Dillon, Montana 59725. A pastor will be present to say a few words. Family and friends are warmly welcome to attend.

Tom Orr

Tom Orr, 90, of Portland, Oregon, passed away peacefully on May 18, 2025.

He was born on July 8, 1934, in Dillon, Montana, to Alice and Edward Orr. Tom was an identical twin to William and the younger brother of Jim. His early years in Dillon were marked by both joy and hardship. At the age of 11, he faced the profound loss of his father, who died while serving in World War II. Just a few years later, Tom endured the heartbreaking loss of his twin brother William in a hunting accident at the age of 20. These tragedies shaped Tom's resilience and deepened his appreciation for family, faith, and the simple blessings of life.

Tom dedicated many years working on the family ranch in Dillon, known as the Matador. On January 21, 1956, he married his first love, Monica Simpson. Two years later, they moved to Pocatello, Idaho, before settling in Portland, Oregon, in 1959. There, Tom built a long and respected career as a refrigeration mechanic, serving proudly as a member of the Local 290 Plumbers and Steamfitters for 65 years. Tom and Monica shared 62 beautiful years together until her passing in 2018. Three years later, he met Janet Wolff, with whom he spent the remainder of his life in love and happiness.

Tom lived life with an adventurous and playful spirit. He enjoyed crabbing, fishing, scuba diving, swimming, camping, riding dune buggies at the Oregon Coast, bowling, and golfing. He was an enthusiastic player of bocce ball, shuffleboard, and bean bag baseball, and he was known to be quite the pool shark. He loved trips to casinos, where poker and blackjack were his favorite games. His travels took him across Canada, Mexico, Europe, India, Costa Rica, and for ten winters to Yuma, Arizona. A gifted gardener, Tom especially took pride in growing big, delicious tomatoes.

Those who knew Tom will remember his sense of humor, his gentle soul, and his special smile. Despite health challenges

2025 VFW Raffle Winners

The drawing for the winners of the annual VFW Post 9040 Scholarship Raffle took place on Saturday, August 30, at the Beaverhead County Fair Grounds. Winning tickets were drawn by Brooklyn Brown, Adelane Hart, and Cerilia McKinlay. Raffle winners were Jay Spehar, Carmen Faulk, Mark Piercy, Rebecca Drayer, Ric Lowell, Joan Grogan, Sunny Ralston, Jim Geib, and Melinda Newman.

VFW Post members would like to give a special thanks to all of the area businesses, Christiansen Ranch, Bank of Commerce, Duckworth Apparel, Brian Burkenpas/Windrock Firewood, Murdoch's Ranch and Home Supply, R.E. Miller & Sons, Town and Country Foods, Bitterroot Trading Post, and Jim's Smoke Shop for their generous donations of prizes. Thanks also go out to Bitterroot Trading, The Glen Bar, The Bookstore, 3-D, and Womack's Printing for helping sell raffle tickets at their businesses, and to County Commissioner, John Jackson, the Beaverhead County Fair Board, and Justin Kellebrew, Fair Grounds Manager.

Bill Carroll VFW Post 9040 would also like to thank all of the individuals in the community who were willing to support the VFW by buying tickets for the raffle. Their willingness to purchase tickets made this another successful scholarship fund raising event. Your support will allow us to continue to provide scholarships to two graduating seniors from Beaverhead County High School, awards to outstanding graduates from the Montana Youth Challenge Program, and the various other programs in the local schools and community that we are involved in. We hope that everyone will continue to support this event in the future. And, if you didn't win this year, we wish you better luck next year.

UMW Volleyball Improves to 2-0 in Conference Play with Sweep Over Mayville State

The Montana Western volleyball team (4-5, 2-0 FC) rolled over Mayville State 3-0 (25-14, 25-14, 25-19) Saturday afternoon in North Dakota. The Bulldog defense stepped up in a big way, forcing the Comets to a negative hitting percentage (-.037).

"This was a great first weekend against two new Frontier opponents," Head Coach Katie Lovett said. "I was really impressed with how the team was able to reset quickly when things weren't going to plan and how aggressive they stayed all weekend."

MATCH SUMMARY

After Mayville State won the first two points in the opening frame, Western went on a 7-1 run to claim the lead 7-3. The Comets never got closer than two again and the Bulldogs went on another huge run to take set one 25-14. Set two saw UMW take complete control, leading by as many as 14 before closing it out 25-14. The hosts put up a valiant effort in the final frame, but they were no match for the Bulldogs, who completed the sweep 25-19.

Tyler Walker-Frontier Conf. Defensive Player of the Week

Montana Western football player Tyler Walker was named Erck Hotels/ Frontier Conference Football Defensive Player of the week after a strong outing against MSU-Northern Sept. 6. This marks the first Player of the Week honor of his career.

Walker was a key part of UMW blanking MSU-Northern 52-0 Saturday afternoon. The Dillon, Mont., native earned a team-high 11 tackles, including a team-best six solo efforts. He recorded six tackles-for-loss totaling 33 yards.

The senior defensive lineman also led the game with 4.5 sacks, 3.0 more than any other player, for 25 yards. With that mark, Walker set a school record for sacks in a single game. The previous record was set in 1980 by Dinny Bennet and matched by Greg Reynard (1984), Duane Earnon (1984), and Troy Lake (1990).

His 4.5 sacks also put him first in the nation and in the Frontier Conference in the category.

Walker's performance also aided the Western Defense in setting a school record for most team sacks in a single game with eight, nesting the previous mark of seven set last season against Arizona Christian.

Bulldog Football Dominates

The Montana Western football team (1-1) blanked MSU-Northern (0-2) 52-0 at Bulldog Stadium Saturday afternoon. UMW racked up 521 yards of total offense while allowing MSUN just 112.

"It was important for us to play well today after a sub-par performance up in Butte against a really good football team," Head Coach Ryan Nourse said. "We were highly motivated to make the necessary improvements and we made a lot of them. I was really pleased with the jump that we made this week and just coming back out and playing our style of football. We were really attacking from the get go and aggressive and confident."

The Bulldogs were exceptional in the pass game once again, earning 425 yards (9.7 yards/attempt), four 21 passing first downs, and four touchdowns. Their run game improved from week one with 96 net rushing yards and three touchdowns. UMW converted on 7-9 redzone chances, 11-17 third downs, and 1-2 fourth downs.

Senior QB Michael Palandri was responsible for six of Western's seven touchdowns in the contest, throwing for all four passing TDs and running two in himself. He totaled 386 yards and went 28-34 (.823 %) in the contest.

Reserve quarterback Kaden LaPlaunt also played some valuable minutes against the Lights. He went 6-10 for 46 yards passing while also scoring the Bulldogs seventh TD on a four-yard quarterback keeper.

Jonathan Kirkley had seven receptions for 111 yards and one touchdown to lead UMW's receiving efforts. Eli Nourse (103 yards, one touchdown), Seth Shook (87 yards, one touchdown) and Landon Charlton (one touchdown) also got in on the action.

Charlton was Montana Western's leading rusher in the game, running for 52 yards with a long of 18. Gavin Vetter also hit double figures in rush yards with 20.

Maclain Burckley went 7-7 in PATs while added a 37 yard field goal.

The Bulldogs were a force on defense from the first kick, allowing the visitors 85 rush yards and just 27 pass yards. They held them to eight first downs and forced eight punt and three fumbles. Montana Western also tallied a whopping eight sacks, totaling 60 yards lost for the Lights.

Tyler Walker powered the defense with 10 total tackles (including a team-best five solo tackles) and registered 5.0 tackles-for-loss for 32 yards (3.5 sacks - 24 yards).

Reece Stanish earned six total tackles including three solo whole Connor Dunlea, Kale VanCampen, and Liam Rowe put up four tackles each. 15 other Bulldogs recorded at least one tackle in the contest.

UMW Men's Rodeo Takes Team Title, Women's Team Finishes Second at Trapper Stampede #1

The Montana Western rodeo teams put in solid performances in their first competition of the season Saturday. The men's team took home the team title with 837 points while the women placed second with 248 points. Jake Deveraux placed second individually in the men's all around.

"We are really happy to open the season on a good note," Head Rodeo Coach JT Robbins said. "The kids really competed at a high level, and we're looking forward to the next one."
