October Is Cybersecurity Awareness Month: Protecting Montanans from Online Fraud

October is Cybersecurity Awareness Month, and as your State Auditor and Commissioner of Securities and Insurance, I'm proud to announce a new initiative focused on strengthening consumer awareness and protecting Montanans from cybercrime and fraud.

Our number one priority as an agency is to protect Montanans from fraud and prosecute bad actors who seek to harm individuals, families, and businesses. This initiative is one important step we can take together to reduce that risk and build a stronger, more secure Montana.

Throughout the month, our office will share resources and guidance to help you:

- Recognize phishing schemes and other online scams.
- Protect your personal and financial information.
- Strengthen your cybersecurity practices at home and work.
- Report suspected fraud and cyber threats quickly.

We're also developing new digital assets and educational materials that will soon be available on our website. These resources will be incorporated into our fraud prevention presentations across the state to help communities better understand and defend against cyber risks.

If you would like our team to bring a cybersecurity or fraud prevention presentation to your organization, school, or community group, please contact our office. Together, we can take proactive steps to keep Montanans' information and finances safe.

Election soon coming:

By: MJ:

Dillon has two candidates, Mr. Raymond Graham and Mr. John McGinley, on the ticket for the mayor position. This may make some changes in the local government system. Change is difficult for humans. Change means getting rid of our illusions, listening with open ears, do your research and elect people that are in the positions to represent the people.

There are many federal and state laws that gives the people the right to know. Transparency is a necessity. Question: Do you think that transparency has been an issue for the last 4 years?

Questions: Why are there four (4±) active lawsuits against the city today. Why is it the mayor and city council can not find a working agreement via discussion? Are there elected officials in office today want to find solutions for the betterment of the community? Has the taxpayer's income increased where they have extra money to pay for these lawsuits? Why does a local citizen have a suit for one half (1/2±) million for a street in his sub-division?

So many questions that require answers. Stop a candidate if you see them and ask them questions you are concerned about. Let's not forget about the streets that are progressively deteriorating.

MBC's 42nd Annual NutcrackerTICKETS: On Sale Now! Visit www.montanaballet.org

Montana Ballet Company (MBC) will unveil a fresh, new Nutcracker this year, and for the first time in its 42-year history, they will be collaborating with both the Bozeman Symphony and Opera Montana.

One of the largest artistic collaborations in the region, MBC's The Nutcracker with the Bozeman Symphony and Opera Montana's Youth Chorus, will be held during Christmas Stroll weekend at the Willson Auditorium on Saturday, December 6th at 2 p.m. and 7 p.m., and Sunday, December 7th at 11:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

MBC Artistic Director notes that while staying true to everything audiences cherish, this year's production will introduce all-new choreography, stunning sets and costumes, and exciting theatrical elements.

"Our new Nutcracker celebrates the beauty of Montana, blending its spirit with the timeless language of ballet. It's the holiday classic you love, with a few surprises—and a production that feels both fresh and rooted in our home." Said Ms. Bowman.

MBC is thrilled to welcome world-renowned guest artists, Lyrica Woodruff and Benjamin Freemantle, performing the celebrated role of Woodruff and Freemantle will share the stage with Soren Kiesel, co-director of Broad Comedy, MBC's own company dancers, and more than 100 dancers from the community.

Another highlight of this charming production is the Bozeman Symphony, conducted by Dr. Matthew Makeever, Concert Manager and Librarian for the Bozeman Symphony, and Artistic Director and Conductor for Second-String Orchestra in Bozeman.

"I am so excited to be returning to conduct the Montana Ballet Company's production of The Nutcracker with the Bozeman Symphony. The Nutcracker is one of my favorite works, and was such a joy to perform last year. My involvement with this production has spanned probably 25 years: From being on stage as a tumbling bear, to playing trumpet in the pit alongside my father, and now leading the orchestra and collaborating with the dancers, I am so honored and fortunate to have this opportunity to be involved in a production and community I feel like I have known my whole life. This production is a treasure, and I am thankful to be here!" Said Dr. Makeever.

Alongside the Bozeman Symphony, MBC is delighted to welcome Opera Montana's Youth Chorus.

Emerald Halt-Ullman, Opera Montana Director of Community Engagement says, "We are excited to be joining MBC and the Bozeman Symphony, for the first time, in such a wonderful Bozeman tradition. Our choristers are looking forward to being a part of the magic!"

Celebrating 42 years in Bozeman, MBC's production of The Nutcracker is a treat for the entire family! For tickets visit MontanaBallet.org or call 406.582.8702. All seating is reserved.

Nutcracker Special Events

MBC's beloved Tea with Clara will be held at The Kimpton Armory on Sunday, November 23rd at 11 a.m. This special event is a must for families and children. Enjoy Nutcracker performance highlights, dancing with Clara, fine tea and treats, keepsake photos, a special Nutcracker boutique, mimosa bar, and a family-focused silent auction.

To purchase tickets for Tea with Clara visit MontanaBallet.org or call 406.582.8702. All seating is reserved.

Season after season, MBC, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, produces quality performances, enchanting audiences with new and updated artistry of dance, choreography, music, and design.

Sagebrush and Snowdrifts 4H club

By Ralston Yurko

Ellie Weldon of the Sagebrush and Snowdrifts 4H club organized a project fair open to all current or interested 4H members in Beaverhead County. It took place on Friday, October 10th at the 4H building at Beaverhead County Fairgrounds. As the 4H County Ambassador, Ellie wanted to create an event where people could ask questions about 4H, see examples of projects, and hopefully register as a new member. It was a great way to kick off the new 4H year and celebrate National 4H Week. "We had more people come than we had expected," Ellie said, "and about 20 new registrations, so it was a great success." If you missed Project Fair and want to join 4H in Beaverhead County or have any questions, contact Jack at the extension office at 406-683-3785.

The #15 Montana Western football team (4-3, 1-2 FC West) was clipped by #20 College of Idaho (5-1, 2-0 FC West) 28-21 Saturday.

"Although taking another loss is disappointing, this team has fought hard and gave great effort," Head Coach Ryan Nourse said.

Western tallied 244 total yards (183 passing, 61 rushing) and tallied 16 first downs in the contest.

Michael Palandri tallied 183 yards and two total touchdowns (one passing, one rushing). He was sacked three times and intercepted twice by the Yotes defense.

Aidan Lammers rushed for a team-best 51 yards and one touchdown while Jakob Humphrey added 20 yards.

Eli Nourse caught for a game-high 71 yards. Seth Shook registered 38 yards and one TD catch.

Defensively, Jace Fitzgerald led the game with 16 total tackles while Tyler Walker added 11. Reece Stanish paced the team with four solo efforts.

Manuel Variz IV recorded a game-best 1.5 sacks. Wesley Donaghey snagged an interception and returned it for 19 yards.

LOOKING AHEAD: The Bulldogs are on the road again next week when they take on Simpson in Redding. Kickoff is set for 2 p.m. MT.

My dog Jake has been diagnosed with allergies to everything except VENISON, BEEF LIVER and RICE. Beef liver can cause copper poisoning in dogs. Rice is ok as a supplement but it can contribute to inflammation for dogs with allergies. With this very unusual diagnosis I am struggling. If you have any venison, elk or moose in your freezer that you don't want I sure could use it. I will pick it up. Call me - Catherine Cain 406-498-6198 Jake thanks you!
