Janet Lee Derksen

June 29, 1950 - October 22, 2025

A natural born sweet girl: compassionate, caring, loyal and true-blue; you could search the world over and not find another like her. She knew the value of hard work and was tireless at helping those she loved the most. Janet Lee (Black) Derksen passed away Wednesday October 22, 2025 from complications of a long illness with frontotemporal dementia. The disease's causes are unknown; the treatment non-existent yet Janet maintained a positive attitude throughout her illness and found something to smile about every day.

The second child of C. Ray and Mildred K. Black, Janet was born June 29, 1950 in Glen Ridge, N.J. Janet's father was a career U.S. Army Warrant Officer and the family moved frequently as his duty station changed. In her preschool years, Janet lived two years in Stuttgart, Germany before the family returned to America. Janet attended first grade in a one room school in rural Pedricktown, NJ before the family moved to Tampa, FL where she finished grade school. In 1962 the family moved to Hialeah, Florida where Janet completed junior high and high school.

In 1969 Janet struck out on her own, moving to Philadelphia, PA where she worked for Blue Cross. While in Philadelphia, Janet was a regular at U.S.O. events where she met her future husband, Lee Derksen, who was then serving in the U.S. Navy. Janet and Lee were married June 25, 1972 in Hialeah.

Raised a city girl, Janet took to the outdoors like she had been born for it. She learned to love fishing, hunting and camping. She bagged a whitetail buck with the very first shot she fired while hunting. Lee understood that when he heard Janet fire a shot, it was time to pack meat! Janet's many accomplishments in outdoor sports include releasing a 10# walleye, releasing fly-caught tarpon and bonefish, successfully flyfishing Point Dexter Slough's tricky currents, bagging numerous antelope, deer, elk and a trophy Bighorn Sheep.

Janet worked at various clerical jobs in Bonners Ferry,

Idaho and in Dillon, MT. For 16 years she served as office manager for Harve Wolfe, DDS in Dillon. It was in her work that Janet became friends with so many Dillon residents. Lee often said "We can't go to the grocery store without running into at least one of Janet's friends."

Janet learned Karate at the Dillon Karate Club and advanced to earn First and Second Dan Black Belt honors eventually becoming the club's leader and instructor. She especially loved working with children; helping them learn martial arts and the respect, humility and patience that are the hallmarks of the Dae Myung Martial Arts Federation.

She was also a softball player and coach.

Janet was preceded in death by her father and her younger brother Douglas K. Black. She is survived by her 98 year-old mother Mildred Black of Sylva, NC, older brother Dave Black of North Topsail Beach, NC, and younger sisters Barbara Black Perry of Hockessin, DE and Sandra Black of Whittier, NC.

Janet was a loving wife, daughter, sister and friend, always thinking of others and always willing to lend an ear or some comforting words when needed. She was an excellent homemaker who enjoyed sewing, knitting, cooking, baking and especially her garden and flowers. She was a sweet and gentle soul whose presence will be greatly missed.

Janet was a Christian, baptized and confirmed in the Methodist faith. She is now at home with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

A celebration of Janet's life will be held later at a time to be announced.

Western Women's Basketball Picked 11th in 2025-26 Frontier Conference Women's Basketball Preseason Coaches' Poll

Montana Western Women's Basketball was tabbed 11th on the 2025-26 Frontier Conference Women's Basketball Preseason Coaches' Poll, the league office announced Monday.

New conference member Dakota State landed in the top spot in the poll, with Carroll and Rocky Mountain sharing second place.

"We know where we're starting, and that's okay," Head Coach Ryan Sullivan said. "For us right now it means the same for us to be ranked at the bottom as it would for us to be ranked towards the top. Just have a lot of unknowns with a first-year staff. Our players are buying into a new system, a new standard, and a new culture. We're not worried about where we're ranked right now, we're focused on who we're becoming. I believe in this group and the direction we're heading."

The Bulldogs are looking to improve on the 2024-25 season, which saw them finish sixth in the Frontier with a 7-21 overall record (2-13 FC).

First-year Head Coach Sullivan returned eight student-athletes from last year's squad, including seniors Isabella Lund and Keke Davis. Both Lund (9.9 ppg) and Davis (8.4 ppg) were in the top five scorers for UMW in 2024-25.

Also back for Western are redshirt-freshmen Brooke Deyak, Kasey Hendren, and Kyle Pancost, as well as sophomore Sammi Love, redshirt-sophomore Mila Hawk, and Junior Ava Bellach. Bellach joins Davis as one of two returners to appear in all 28 games for the Bulldogs last season.

UMW bolstered this season's roster with seven newcomers. True freshmen Rina Gottula, Kensi Dorn, and Grace Murgel will add depth in all aspects of the game while transfers Maile Wilcox, Gio Horner, Bailee Sayler, and Tayva Phillips will bring needed experience.

LOOKING AHEAD

The Bulldogs open the season at the Peggy Sarsfield Basketball Weekend, hosted by Montana Tech. They will take on Southern Oregon Nov. 1 in Butte, Mont., and play host to College of Idaho Nov. 2 in Dillon.

Commissioner James Brown Launches Formal Investigation Into Blue Cross Blue Shield Following Major Data Breach

Montana State Auditor and Commissioner of Securities and Insurance James Brown has launched an immediate investigation into Blue Cross Blue Shield of Montana (BCBSMT) following a major data breach putting the personal and medical information of up to 462,000 Montana customers at risk.

"This breach is not just a technical lapse. This is a deeply disturbing incident with far-reaching and jaw-dropping consequences for our citizens," said Commissioner Brown. "Montanans have every right to expect their personal data, especially sensitive health information, to be protected by the entities they trust. The severity of this breach underscores the urgent need for robust oversight and our agency to take swift and immediate action to protect Montana consumers."

According to BCBSMT, this breach may have exposed names, addresses, birth dates, billing and medical data, phone numbers, and other sensitive information between November 8, 2024, and March 5, 2025. While BCBSMT says they are notifying affected customers and offering credit monitoring, we are not aware of that happening at this time. Commissioner Brown is taking swift action to ensure Montanans' rights remain protected and that future violations are prevented.

"My first and foremost duty is to protect the people of Montana. Any time a company's actions become a threat to our citizens, my office will stand in their way and carry out every regulatory authority we possess to safeguard Montana families," Commissioner Brown affirmed. "We will never hesitate to hold bad actors accountable and ensure consumer trust remains unshaken."

Commissioner Brown also announced the launch of new cybersecurity initiatives and a statewide public awareness campaign to help Montanans guard against identity theft and fraud linked to such incidents.

Affected consumers are urged to carefully review Explanation of Benefits statements and report suspicious activity immediately. For information and support, visit the Montana Commissioner of Securities and Insurance website or contact BCBSMT's dedicated member support line.

State Auditor Joins Fellow Statewide Officials at Land Board Meeting Approving $857,000 in New Revenue for Montana Schools

Auditor James Brown joined his State Land Board colleagues to review and approve multiple projects benefiting the state's trust beneficiaries and public institutions. The October Land Board meeting highlighted key initiatives generating an estimated $857,000 in revenues for the people of Montana.

"As a proud member of Montana's Land Board, I'm honored to vote for this conservation agreement with Green Diamond," Commissioner James Brown said. "This project balances the responsible management of working forests with long-term public access and habitat protection. For generations to come, Montana families, hunters, anglers, and outdoor enthusiasts will be able to continue using these lands, knowing they'll never be lost to private development."

They approved the following revenue-generating actions:

- Timber Sales (estimated): $699,376
- Cabin and Homesite Revenues: $120,000
- Easements: $44,492

The Montana Land Board consists of the top five statewide elected officials. The board manages millions of acres of state trust lands, ensuring both financial returns for trust beneficiaries and responsible land stewardship for future generations.

Veteran's Corner. Update By Mike Lawson

Some important events coming up with Veteran's Day on Nov 11 and the Marine Corps Birthday on Nov 10th. The Montana Department of the Marine Corps League is going to have a Yellow Foot Print booth at the Montana State University home game Tailgate Party, in Bozeman, out in the parking lot. They'll have the yellow footprints on the ground and will be serving food. The yellow footprints have a special meaning for all Marines. When we first got to bootcamp and wondered what we got ourselves into, we were made to place our feet in the yellow footprints painted on the pavement. It has become a symbol of pride for all of us as that was the beginning of our journey in becoming a Marine.

The many Marine Corps Toys For Tot's campaigns around Montana and across America are kicking off their campaigns. Here in Butte our Marine Detachment #724 did our kickoff this past Friday at the Hooch. We had a great turnout and MacKenzie River provided pizza and salad, free of charge. We not only provide toys for underprivileged kids in Butte but in the Dillon area, Twin Bridges, Ruby Valley, Whitehall, Cardwell and Harrison. We cross three Mountain ranges and cover a number of valleys and cross at least 4 rivers. This is typical Montana. The Marine Toys For Tots program is incredible for what it has done for kids in the past and present. Nationally in 2024, it set a record and distributed 30 million toys, books and other gifts to nearly 13 million disadvantaged children. This was to 830 communities nationwide. Since it began in 1947 through 2024, the Marine Tots For Tots program has distributed over 700 million toys, books, and games to 314 million disadvantaged children. Our Butte Campaign covering the earlier mentioned SW Mt. areas, distributed 12,677 toys to 1,353 kids. We do a great job and it's because of all the volunteers, businesses, community organizations, and donors who all come together and are part of our TFT team. We thank you, the kids thank you and the kid's parents thank you.

On Thursday's we drink Pink!

UMW Men's Basketball Lands T-2nd in Conference Men's Basketball Coaches' Poll

Montana Western Men's Basketball tied for second in the 2025-26 Frontier Conference Men's Basketball Preseason Coaches' Poll, the league office announced Monday.

The Bulldogs were edged out by reigning conference champion Montana Tech, who landed the top spot in the poll, while sharing second place with Carroll.

"It is always nice to see our program recognized, but we know the real work lies ahead and this poll doesn't guarantee us anything," Head Coach Patrick Jensen said. "We're focused on improvement and proving what this group can accomplish when the season begins."

The Bulldogs are coming off a 2024-25 campaign that saw them finish fourth in the Frontier with a 16-13 overall record (8-7 in conference play).

Coach Jensen returns eight student-athletes from last year's team, including senior Kyle Gruhler, who led the team in rebounds (6.5) and ranked second in scoring (14.7) in 2024-25.

Also back for the Bulldogs are redshirt-seniors Jacob Ankeny, Jackson Burckley, Carson Denning, and Kolter Merritt, senior Quincy Taylor, redshirt-sophomore Billy Carlson, and redshirt-freshman River Hurley. Ankeny and Burckley both appeared in all 29 games for UMW last season.

New to the squad this season are freshmen Kyler Engellant and Ben Erbacher, as well as transfers Joshua Whiteside, Trayce Atkins, David Young, Mark Huber, and Emanuel Steward. The new additions will add strength and big-game experience to the 2025-26 roster.

LOOKING AHEAD

The Bulldogs open the season on the road at Evergreen State Oct. 26 before returning to Straugh Gymnasium Oct. 30-31 to host the 2025 Montana Western Tournament.
